

HEALTH EQUITY WEBINAR SERIES

Race, Faith, and Politics Pathway to Community Health Leadership

Wednesday, March 22, 2017

11:00am – Noon

Webinar

Lee Roland, Clarence Hill, Deangelo Knuckles PANEL PRESENTATION

In partnership with Loyola University Chicago Neiswanger Institute for Bioethics and 100 Million Healthier Lives, Health Equity webinar is a special series to spread the success of community leaders transforming lives with health equity solutions. Community leaders will share strategies to promote health equity, as well as build a national support systems needed by community leaders to participate with academic and institutional researchers in cross-sector coalitions.

Session Objectives:

- Discuss the benefits and challenges of across race, faith and politics for community health leaders working collaboratively;
- Discuss how to leverage conflict towards growth in the conflicting values; and
- Demonstrate best practices for cross-sector leadership

E-mail rhiller@luc.edu for the webinar link

Sponsored by:

Community-Campus
Partnerships for Health
Promoting Health Equity & Social Justice

Upcoming HEALTH EQUITY WEBINAR 2017 dates: May 24, August 23, October 25