What is a Poverty Simulation Workshop?
During this 3-hour simulation, participants will role-play the lives of families living in poverty and the many community agencies with which they must interact.

Who Should Attend and Why?

- All Loyola University students and faculty!
- Faculty are encouraged to participate to determine how this simulation can be used within curricula.
- Healthcare providers will be better equipped to holistically approach patient care.
- Everyone will come away with a better understanding of the impact of poverty on health and well-being.

Cost: The program is free

Program Sponsor:
This workshop is part of a HRSA Grant #UD7HP26040, called I-CARE-PATH, to integrate interprofessional collaborative education to include all who are interested in the health of communities.
