

Loyola University Chicago Stritch School of Medicine
Doctorate in Healthcare Mission Leadership
Sample Course of Study

While individual students' course plans will be tailored to fit their previous graduate degrees, below is a sample course plan demonstrating the kinds of courses that are offered within Loyola's curriculum or that a student might transfer in. All DHCML students will ordinarily take all the Loyola Doctoral Seminars and Capstones as part of their course of study at Loyola.

Domain	Course Topics
Theology and Bioethics 30 credit hours	Doctrine Scripture Liturgy/Sacraments Ecclesiology Spirituality World Religions Moral Theology Clinical Bioethics The Ethical and Religious Directives Catholic Bioethics and Social Justice
Organizational Leadership 15 credit hours	Healthcare Finance Health Care Management Organizational Ethics I Organizational Ethics II Organizational Development
Loyola Doctoral Seminars 15 credit hours	Integrated Seminar: Theology, Race, & Catholic Healthcare Integrated Seminar: Suffering & Theological Anthropology Integrated Seminar: Ecclesiology of Catholic Healthcare Canon Law, Sponsorship, and Church Relations Mission Leadership and Ministry Formation
Loyola Doctoral Capstones 6 credits	Capstone 1: Theology & Ethics Capstone 2: Organizational Leadership