

Plan 2020
Strategic Priority 3
Promote multidisciplinary collaboration to address societal challenges
Health Equity Collaborative
2016-2019 Outcomes

Funded through Health Equity Collaborative or Plan 2020	Date of Funding	Title	Outcomes to date
David Shoham	2017	Bachelor's Degree in Public Health Feasibility	New BS in Public Health degree to begin at LUC in Fall of 2019
Steven Scaglione	2017	Comprehensive Wellness Program in the Hepatology Clinic
Anya Nikolai	2017	Loyola Women in Science Program	Program continues throughout the Maywood community and now is funded through the Provost office
Linda Janusek	2017	Early Life Adversity and Health Disparity	Met all objectives of study and research continues; PI used this pilot to submit a $3.796M NIH application which is currently in revision
Lisa Skemp	2017	Community Context of Elder Care	Established infrastructure for Healthy Aging in the Community and LUC community partnership
Holly Kramer	2017	TREAT Hypertension
Erik Kallwitz	2017/18	Branched Chain Amino Acid Supplementation and Physical Activity to Improve Muscle Mass in Patients with Cirrhosis
Lisa Skemp	2017/18	A Community Context of Elder Care: A Culturally Informed Healthy Aging Community University Partnership	2 presentations. Ethnographic study on healthy aging continues throughout the Roger's Park and Edgewater Community; PI submitted a Mather LifeWays grant which was not funded
Nallely Mora	2017/18	Enhancing the Sustainability of the Family-based Lifestyle Intervention Program (FLIP)	FLIP funded through Eisenberg Foundation through 2015; Sustainability plans were implemented
Linda Janusek	2017/18	Identification of Epigenetic Pathways Linking Social Adversity and Stress to Health Disparities	1 peer reviewed publication; NIH application submitted and now in revision (see above)
Laura Dugas	2017/18	Omics integration in populations of African ancestry to understand mechanisms underlying obesity and cardiovascular disease	NIH submission under Heather Wheeler; Additional funding sought from Health EQ for $50,000
Abigail Silva	2017/18	Partnering to Assess the Impact of Policy on Breast Cancer Care and Outcomes	2 presentations. American Cancer Society funding submission planned for Fall 2019
Karen Saban	2017/18	Race-Based Stress Reduction and Resilience Program for African American Women at Risk for Cardiovascular Disease	1 peer-reviewed publication and 1 publication under review. 2 presentations. Working on NIH submission for October 2019
Skemp	2017/18	Community Context of Elder Care	Community services being offered